Foreword.....	VII
Workshop participants .....	IX

Section I: Setting the scene

From first unprovoked seizure to newly diagnosed epilepsy: definitions and diagnostic issues at epilepsy onset Alexis Arzimanoglou .....	3
Commentary by Dorotée Kasteleijn Nolst Trenité : Provoked and unprovoked?...	11
How restricted is the spectrum of epilepsies observed in prospective cohorts of first unprovoked seizure? Willem Arts, Hans Stroink, Cees van Donselaar .....	13

Section II: Back to the future

Natural evolution of first unprovoked epileptic seizure Pierre Jallon, S. Perrig, Anne T. Berg .....	27
Risk factors for developing epilepsy after a first unprovoked seizure Sheril R. Haut, Christine O'Dell, Shlomo Shinnar .....	37

Section III: Epileptogenesis and disease progression: the example of febrile seizures

“Complex” febrile seizures and the epilepsy: information from an experimental model Céline Dubé, Tallie Z. Baram .....	49
--	----

Febrile seizures as a risk factor for the development of epilepsy: human data Peter Camfield, Carol Camfield .....	59
--	----

Section IV:
Novel approaches of medical risk factors for unprovoked seizures and cryptogenic epilepsy

Comorbidity of epilepsy and neuropsychiatric disorders: epidemiological considerations Dale C. Hesdorffer .....	71
Commentary by Andres M. Kanner .....	95
Epileptic seizures in the context of the dysimmune syndromes Sean T. Hwang, Frank G. Gilliam .....	107

Section V:
From randomized controlled trials to patient-oriented decision making

From randomized controlled trials to patient-oriented therapy: methodology and clinical issues Philippe Ryvlin .....	147
Treatment of first unprovoked seizure Ettore Beghi .....	157
Treatment of newly diagnosed epilepsy Antony G. Marson .....	169
Bridging the gap between clinical guidelines and individualized patient treatment John M. Pellock .....	187

Section VI: Future Challenges

What types of trials and studies do we need for early treatment of epilepsy? Elinor Ben Menachem, Fredrick Azstely .....	203
From prediction of medical intractability to early surgical treatment Jerome Engel Jr, Anne T. Berg .....	209
